How Labor Plans To

Winthe Government

Can American Labor elect a Labor Government without the aid of a Labor party? For nothing less than this, in the opinion of the New York Times (Dem.), is the purpose behind the non-partisan political campaign of the American Federation of Labor. If the Federation could control the votes of one-third of its membership "it could dominate the situation." remarks the Baltimore News (Ind.). The Federation's plan, the Chicago Unionist reminds us, is another application of the methods by which the Anti-Saloon League won its overwhelming victories after the Prohibition party had failed to get political results. In Congress, Representative Blanton, of Texas, characterized the American Federation of Labor pronunciamento as "the greatest menace ever sounded." For, said Mr. Blanton, "when an organized minority of less than five per cent of the people can control legislation, and now threaten to elect a Congress of serfs, it is indeed a national crisis, threatening the institutions of the country. According to the Indianapolis Union, however, "the American Federation of Labor does not seek to govern; but it is eminently right in taking steps to educate its members as to which Several new marks are likely to be established, as the broad floor space of the Washington Heights regiment permits the athletes to show their best speed. The Buermeyer event looms up as the outstanding event of the evening, judging by the caliber of the men entered. Bob Maxam, Penn's second Ted Meredith, will demand much respect, as will Earl Eby, a team mate; Jimmy O'Brien, Loughlin Lyceum, and Jake Driscoll, of Boston, among others.
